Descriptif de l'éditeur

Plan and report your time in the Outlook Calendar. No extra application needed. Complete Outlook-based time reporting for workgroups. Work in your calendar as you normally would, but select one, two or three extra properties from dropdown to each appointment and send the appointment information directly into an MS Access or SQL database. Offline or online via ASP page. PDA integration. Powerful integrated statistics tool, the OLAP Reporting Tool for Excel, facilitates business intelligence.

Plan ahead with tblPlanning, where no reported entries from users can be seen. Private meetings can be excluded. Automatic and silent client upgrades.

Free 30 day trial download, video demonstrations + downloadable manual and slideshow available on the website.
